

Victor Schoenmakers

Victor Schoenmakers is Director European and International Affairs at the Rotterdam Port Authority. He is responsible for the strategic political design and the positioning of the Rotterdam Port Authority in the 27 Member States of the European Union. He is also a member of the (Netherlands') Committee on Modernization of Diplomacy.

In the past, Victor Schoenmakers has held manifold positions at the PoR, such as Director of Marketing and Head of Strategy and Communication. He was heavily involved in the corporatization of the port authority. In the period 1993-2000 he was Executive Secretary and Head of General Affairs.

From 2008 to 2012, Victor Schoenmakers has been Chairman of the European Seaports Organisation (ESPO). ESPO represents the common interests of European port authorities, port administrations and port associations with the institutions of the European Union.